

Privacy Policy

Maritime Ship & Yacht Brokers Inc. (MSY) is committed to respecting the privacy of individuals and organizations that visit its web site and with whom it does business. Information about visitors to the site and clients for whom it provides service is protected under the federal Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA)

*

MSY does not automatically gather any personal information from visitors to its web site such as: names, phone numbers, e-mail or street addresses. This information is only obtained if it is supplied voluntarily, usually through e-mail or telephone contact.

In its effort to provide the highest level of intermediary and consultancy service it is often necessary for MSY to obtain information from and about its clients. As a result, MSY will inform them of why and how it collects, uses and discloses personal information, obtain consent where required, and only handle personal information in a manner that a reasonable person would consider appropriate in the circumstances.

*

The web site administrator for MSY has access to IP addresses to analyze trends, administer the site, track site visitors' movements, and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use. IP addresses are not linked to personally identifiable information and are not accessed by MSY.

Any questions or comments regarding this policy, or the administration of PIPEDA in the MSY office and website may be directed to: msy@nbnet.nb.ca
